Veterinary Examinations. In the event that Ellis’s in-house veterinarian (the Ellis “Veterinarian”) or any Ellis racing official or other racing personnel have reason to believe, based on their observations or information provided or available to them, that a horse stabled on Ellis’s property by Trainer is injured, unsound, in distress, or otherwise unfit to train or race, Ellis may request that Trainer make such horse available for examination, by the Ellis Veterinarian or, alternatively, at the request of the Trainer, by a licensed Kentucky Horse Racing and Gaming Corporation Veterinarian (“Corporation Veterinarian”). In the event that Trainer refuses to have the horse examined by either such veterinarian, then Ellis may refuse to permit the horse to train and/or race on Ellis’s property until the horse is cleared for training and/or racing by the Ellis Veterinarian or a Corporation Veterinarian. In the event that the horse is examined by the Ellis Veterinarian or the Corporation Veterinarian and deemed injured, unsound, in distress, or otherwise, unfit to train or race, then Ellis may refuse to permit the horse to train and/or race on Ellis’s property until the horse is subsequently cleared for training and/or racing by the Ellis Veterinarian or a Commission Veterinarian, as applicable.
